ABOUT SJAFC

The San Joaquin Area Flood Control Agency (SJAFC) is a Joint Powers Authority that was created in May 1995 by the City of Stockton, San Joaquin County and the San Joaquin County Flood Control and Water Conservation District for the purpose of addressing flood protection for the City of Stockton and surrounding County area. The Cities of Lathrop and Manteca joined SJAFC in January 2018.

SJAFC's mission is to reduce flood risk for the Cities of Stockton, Lathrop and Manteca and some adjacent unincorporated County areas.

The business of SJAFC shall be conducted by its nine member Board of Directors with one (1) member of the San Joaquin County Flood Control and Water Conservation District; one (1) member of the Board of Supervisors of the County; two (2) members from Stockton City Council; two (2) members from Lathrop City Council; two (2) members from Manteca City Council; and one (1) member of the public, appointed by a simple majority of the other Board members, who shall reside or work within the boundaries of the Agency.
